

The First Epistle of Peter

2

Morning Devotions

Select a passage in God's Word. Talk with the Lord as you read the passage, then go back and find one or two verses which the Lord has impressed on your heart and meditate on them.

Morning Study

Today we continue reading Peter's first letter, this time looking more closely at the fourth and final section – 5:1-14. This section can be divided into three subsections. Read each subsection, answering for yourself the questions associated with it. Jot down or type out your the answers and file them together with your morning study.

Read 1 Peter 5:1-4

- How did Peter appeal to “the elders among you”? (5:1).
- What is Peter's appeal to the elders he was writing to? (5:2-3).
- Peter contrasts right and wrong attitudes for those who serve as “shepherds of God's flock.” List down the two right attitudes and the two wrong attitudes that Peter mentions in 5:2.
- Under whose care is God's flock? (5:2).
- In 5:3, Peter contrasts two opposite styles of leadership – “lording it over” the flock and “being examples to” the flock. Write down what you believe to be the difference between the two.
- How does Peter's words in 5:2-3 compare with Jesus' words to Peter in John 21:15-17?
- What reward will the Chief Shepherd give to those elders who obey Peter's instructions in 5:2-3? (5:4).

Read 1 Peter 5:5-11

- What instruction does Peter give to the younger men? (5:5).
- What instruction does Peter give to “all of you”? (5:5-6).
- Why does Peter tell his readers to be self-controlled and alert? (5:8-9).
- What will “the God of all grace” do? (5:10-11).

Read 1 Peter 5:12-14

- In conclusion, what did Peter tell his readers to stand fast in? (5:12).

Memory Verse

...All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because, “God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble.” Humble yourselves, therefore, under God’s mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time.

1 Peter 5:5-6

Here are a few suggestions that may help you to memorize your memory verse:

- ➡ Ask the Lord to help you remember his Word (see John 14:26).
- ➡ Use the version of the Bible you are most familiar with. What you normally read in your Bible is what you need to be memorizing.
- ➡ Don’t just memorize the contents of the verse; memorize its “address” (the verse reference) as well. You can do this by following this pattern: Step 1: reference; Step 2: verse content; Step 3: reference. Then repeat steps 1-3. Note that you are quoting the reference twice as many times as you quote the actual verse content. This gives the verse a clear “reference tag.”
- ➡ After you have read your memory verse out aloud several times, try going through your memory verse without reading your computer screen.
- ➡ Look up your memory verse in your Bible. Look at its immediate context and read the verses that come before and after your memory verse.
- ➡ Print out your memory verse or jot it down on a piece of paper. Take this paper with you when you go to work or do other daily activities. Meditate on the meaning of the verse throughout the day.
- ➡ During your noon appointment with the Lord, take out your memory verse and go over it again. Talk to the Lord about what this verse means to you personally.
- ➡ In the evening (at either your evening study or your evening devotions), see if you can quote your memory verse from memory. Then, without looking at the memory verse itself, see if you can find it in your Bible.
- ➡ The next day, before you begin committing a new verse to memory, rehearse your previous day’s memory verse and see if you can remember it (without cheating!).
- ➡ Finally, at the end of the week (possibly on the Sunday), collect all your week’s memory verses, rehearse them and see if you can recall them without reading them. Spend a little extra time on any verses you have difficulty recalling.
- ➡ Remember: Don’t just memorize a verse. Put it into practice (James 1:22). It is not being able to quote a verse from memory that counts. It is His Word abiding in your heart that counts (John 15:7). When you actually apply a verse consistently to your daily life, that is when you truly know that verse!
