

The Book of Galatians

15

Morning Devotions

Read a Scripture passage of your choice. Talk with the Lord as you read his Word. When you are finished, go back and select one or two verses which you believe God is using to speak to you and meditate thoughtfully and prayerfully on what he is saying.

Morning Study

This morning we will look at the third section of Paul's letter to the Galatians – chapters 5-6. This section can be divided into three subsections.

Read each subsection and answer for yourself the questions associated with them. Type out your answers or jot them down on a piece of paper and file your answers with your morning study.

Read Galatians 5:1-12

- In 5:1, how does Paul describe the Covenant of Law?
- How had the Galatians “fallen away from grace”? (5:2-4).
- In Christ what is the only thing that counts? (5:5-12).

Read Galatians 5:13-26

- How is our freedom in the New Covenant to be expressed? (5:13-16).
- How will we not gratify the desires of the sinful nature? (5:16-25).
- List on one side of a page the acts of the flesh and on the opposite side the fruit of the Spirit (5:17-26).

Read Galatians 6:1-18

- What do you think is the law of Christ and how does Paul say we can fulfil it? (6:1-6).
- In 6:7-10, how does Paul say the law of sowing and reaping applies to you as a believer?
- What is the only thing we can boast in? (6:11-18).

MEMORY VERSE

May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

Galatians 6:14

Here are a few suggestions that may help you to memorize your memory verse:

- ➡ Ask the Lord to help you remember his Word (see John 14:26).
- ➡ Use the version of the Bible you are most familiar with. What you normally read in your Bible is what you need to be memorizing.
- ➡ Don't just memorize the contents of the verse; memorize its "address" (the verse reference) as well. You can do this by following this pattern: Step 1: reference; Step 2: verse content; Step 3: reference. Then repeat steps 1-3. Note that you are quoting the reference twice as many times as you quote the actual verse content. This gives the verse a clear "reference tag."
- ➡ After you have read your memory verse out aloud several times, try going through your memory verse without reading your computer screen.
- ➡ Look up your memory verse in your Bible. Look at its immediate context and read the verses that come before and after your memory verse.
- ➡ Print out your memory verse or jot it down on a piece of paper. Take this paper with you when you go to work or do other daily activities. Meditate on the meaning of the verse throughout the day.
- ➡ During your noon appointment with the Lord, take out your memory verse and go over it again. Talk to the Lord about what this verse means to you personally.
- ➡ In the evening (at either your evening study or your evening devotions), see if you can quote your memory verse from memory. Then, without looking at the memory verse itself, see if you can find it in your Bible.
- ➡ The next day, before you begin committing a new verse to memory, rehearse your previous day's memory verse and see if you can remember it (without cheating!).
- ➡ Finally, at the end of the week (possibly on the Sunday), collect all your week's memory verses, rehearse them and see if you can recall them without reading them. Spend a little extra time on any verses you have difficulty recalling.
- ➡ Remember: Don't just memorize a verse. Put it into practice (James 1:22). It is not being able to quote a verse from memory that counts. It is His Word abiding in your heart that counts (John 15:7). When you actually apply a verse consistently to your daily life, that is when you truly know that verse!
